DAYSTAR - BAYRING INTERNET CAFÉ PROVIDES SHOW ATTENDEES AND EXHIBITORS WITH FREE INTERNET ACCESS AT SEACOAST CHAMBERS BUSINESS EXPO

Local businesses join together as wireless Internet sponsors for annual business-to-business expo.

PORTSMOUTH, NH – October 25, 2004 – BayRing Communications, a local telecommunications company, and Daystar Computer Services, the area’s premier technology services provider, today announced their collaboration as wireless sponsors for the 2004 Seacoast Chambers Business Expo. Together, BayRing and Daystar will provide wireless Internet access to expo exhibitors, enabling them to enhance their tradeshow booths with on-line content, such as a company website or on-line product demo. Furthermore, exhibitors can use the free Internet connection to access e-mail and stay connected to their respective businesses while at the day-long event.

Individuals attending the show can also take advantage of free Internet access at the Daystar-BayRing Internet Café. Located in Booths 41-44, the Internet Café will be open throughout the show. Visitors will enjoy a cup of coffee at café tables outfitted with wireless-enabled laptops. Patrons can check their e-mail, read the day’s local headlines, and generally surf the web. In addition, café-goers can enter to win an elite, 3-night vacation package to popular resorts and hotels in destinations throughout North America.

“We are delighted to work with BayRing Communications as wireless sponsors of the 2004 Seacoast Chambers Business Expo,” said Daystar CEO Keith Bamford. “With BayRing’s high-speed Internet access and Daystar’s wireless networking expertise, we can offer show attendees and exhibitors a valuable service and simultaneously demonstrate the growing trend of public-access Internet. Furthermore, as Chamber members, it provides us with an opportunity to lend our talents and participation to this valuable event.”

Located in Portsmouth, NH, Daystar Computer Services is a full-service technology reseller and provider of business computer and networking services. BayRing Communications is a premier telecommunications company located in Pease International Tradeport.

The 2004 Seacoast Chambers Business Expo will be held at the Flextronics facility at Pease International Tradeport on October 28th. A luncheon will kick off the show at 12:00pm. The expo floor will be open from 1:00pm to 7:00pm. Hosted by seven chambers of commerce in southern Maine and New Hampshire, the annual business-to-business expo is open to chamber members and their guests.
